

CAMDEN AND VICINITY.

Items of Interest from the Cities and Towns Across the Delaware.

Mrs Lizzie Fullerton, who was committed to the county jail by Justice Wright of Gloucester City, for disorderly conduct, and who afterwards was the justice arrested for misdemeanor in office, was released by Judge Wescott yesterday on a writ of habeas corpus.

A slight fire, caused by an overheated stove occurred at the dwelling of Mrs. Mary Ambruster, No. 1206 Pavonia street, yesterday afternoon. The damage was trifling.

A certificate of incorporation of the 'Electric Gas Light' Company was filed in the county clerk's office yesterday. The capital stock is $20,000, divided in 200 shares of $100 each.

A certificate titled the 'Halvage Hewing Machine' Company was also filed in the county clerk's office yesterday. The capital stock is $500,000.

Mayor Pratt has appointed the following on the police force in place of the Democratic officers who have resigned: Emanuel Lee and W. Pedrick, Fourth ward; Christian Tenner, Sixth ward, and Henry Peters, Seventh ward.

H. Cowperthwait, of the Seventh ward, was committed to the county jail yesterday by Justice Barr, in default of bail, charged with failing to support his family.

Justice Barr yesterday held George Meier in $200 bail to answer a charge of selling liquor on Sunday.

The annual school meeting in Winslow township broke up in a row. The Methodist faction nominated candidates for directors; but were defeated, and the dispute descended into a scuffle, in which several persons were hurt.