

No Hope Now for Lambert.

The last ray of hope for Theodore Lambert, who is sentenced to be hanged in Camden on January 3 for the murder of Baker Kairer, was shut off yesterday, when the New Jersey Board of Pardons refused to commute his sentence to life imprisonment. The argument for clemency was made by Lawyer John L. Semple.