

NEW NAMES FOR STREETS

Radical Changes to Be Made in Camden's Annexed District

The annexation of the town of Stockton to Camden has necessitated the renaming of many streets in the annexed district, as the old names conflict with the street nomenclature of Camden proper. A sub committee of City Council who were appointed to act in conjunction with City Surveyor Farnham has solved the problem, and the changes they suggest will probably be adopted by City Council at its next meeting. Of the sixty-one suggested changes fifty are in the former town of Stockton, and are as follows:

Arlington street to be changed to Thirtieth, Beach to Forest, Cramer to Twenty-sixth, Chestnut to Watson, Chestnut avenue to Biddle, Central avenue to Fremont, Cooper avenue to Twenty-seventh street, Delaware avenue to Hagan, Elm to Copley, Erie to Saunders, Evans to Hobart, Folwell to Carman, Fifth to Hayes avenue, Fillmore avenue to Wayne, Fourth to River avenue, Front to Essex, George to Rand, Grant avenue to Concord, Howard to Dupont, Jefferson to Boyd, Main to Brant, Maple to Trinity, Master to Canton, Park to Hollis, Penn avenue to Arnold, St. John to Bank, Fourth to Hanover, Benson to Mickle, River road to River avenue, New Cove road to Thirty sixth street, Seventh to Sherman avenue, First to Twenty-eighth, Boothman to Twenty-fourth, Centre to Thirty-third, Central to Thirty-second, Penn to High, Washington to Chase, Second to Twenty-ninth, Second avenue to German, Sixth to Arthur avenue, Spruce to Emerson, State to Marlton avenue, Taylor avenue to Astor, Third to Bryant, Third, from Westfield avenue to north of Pleasant, to Thirtieth; Van Buren avenue to Putnam, Walnut to Temple, Washington avenue to Carman, Westminster avenue to Mickle, Wright avenue to Morse, Folwell to Fifteenth.

The changes in old Camden follow: Arthur to Seward, Cleveland terrace to Kent place, Church place to Chapel place, Fulton place to Waverly, Dayton to Garden, Green to Dana, Griffie alley to Dean alley, Harrison to Randall, Howell to Camac, Lincoln to Douglass, Sewell to Porter, Union place to Campbell place.

In making the changes over two hundred street signs will have to be put up.
