

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

 Robert Wright, aged 32 years, died at the county jail early yesterday from alcoholism.

 William J. McCall, of 207 Senate street, a car inspector for the Pennsylvania Railroad, had a finger torn off while coupling cars yesterday.

 During the heavy snowstorm of Thursday night thieves robbed gas slot meters at the following houses: Allen Stewart, 720 Berkley street; Walter Boone, 722 Berkley street; Oscar Driesbach, 724 Berkley street; Lewis Hensel, 726 Berkley street, and J. Byron Johnson, 728 Berkley street.

 Patrick McNally was yesterday convicted before Judge Joline in the Camden Criminal Court of a charge of misdemeanor preferred by Samuel Laproz, a boy, of 1319 South American street, Philadelphia. Judge Joline announced he would sentence McNally next Friday. The maximum penalty is twenty-one years imprisonment and a fine of $1000.