

CAMDEN JOTTINGS

Eight Philadelphians were arrested yesterday by the police for "scorching."

The police arrested eight boys yesterday for corner lounging and insulting pedestrians.

William Ringle will be given a hearing by Recorder Nowrey to-day on a charge of stealing a suit of clothes from David Malcolm.

James McNally was arrested yesterday on a charge of assaulting and attempting to rob Paul Hoepfner, on the Haddonfield turnpike on July 22. He will have a hearing before Recorder Nowrey to-day.

The "Cadets of Temperance" attended Calvary Presbyterian Church in a body last evening and listened to a sermon by Rev. A. W. Williams, of Philadelphia, on "What is Your Life?"

Joseph Potlaski, a saloonkeeper, of 1017 Chestnut street, was arrested by County Detectives Smith and Cherry, yesterday, on a bench warrant. He was fined $200 last spring for Sunday liquor selling, but has not yet paid up.