

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

 Tomorrow-night Rev. William H. Fishburn will address Cyrene Commandery, No. 7, Masonic Knights Templar, at the First Presbyterian Church.

 Announcement was made of the marriage of Miss Lena Taylor and Julia Deith, by Rev. Joshua Haines, of Maple Shade, on November 3.

 The special commission to consider the municipal lighting plant proposition will meet next week to take up the matter. It is said the proposition is to be pushed through as rapidly as possible.

 Daniel Burton and Alexander Hicks, negroes, were brought to Camden by County Detective Cherry yesterday to answer charges of committing about a dozen petty robberies.

 Before Judge John, in the Orphans' Court, yesterday, exception was taken to the accounting of the estate of John L. Glover, which amounts to $29,121.78. Testimony will be taken next Friday.