

MT. HOLLY SHOWS TO CLOSE FRIDAY

Buddy Fitzgerald Meets Tommy Cooney in Final Open- Air Card

MOUNT HOLLY, September 26.—The Holly Athletic Association which has been conducting the outdoor boxing shows at the baseball park here since May will bring the open air attractions to a close on Friday night, September 26, with what Matchmakers Higgins and Carabine think will prove the best program of the summer and fall season.

The wind-up of eight rounds will be staged by Buddy Fitzgerald, of Philadelphia, and Tommie Cooney, of Atlantic City, and the fight fans who watch the Atlantic City and Philadelphia contests will tell you that this can but be a humdinger, as both fighters carry a wallop in either hand, are strong and aggressive. What more can one expect from a fighter. They meet at 135 pounds.

The semi-windup of six rounds will be staged by that old ring general Harry Larson, of Philadelphia, and he will have as his opponent Joey Rice, of Kensington. If you follow-up the fighting game you know Harry Larson and his ability, and Rice is said to be his equal in every respect.

The balance of the thirty-eight rounds of fighting will be made up as follows: Six rounds—Jackie Hindle, of Gloucester, and Kid Wallace, of Philadelphia, 122 pounds.

Six rounds—Jackie Deimont, of Camden, and Chic Emmons, of Trenton, 124 pounds.

Six rounds—"Mussy" Shinn, of Mount Holly, and Lou Skymer, of Camden, 130 pounds.

Six rounds—Lou Kid Flores, of Mount Holly, and Maxie Freeman, the champion of Camp Dix, at 146 pounds.

Frank Ferguson, of Trenton, will be the referee.
